P.3 and The Pied Piper

P.3 have spent the last few weeks using the story of The Pied Piper to inspire their learning. They have researched rats and written acrostic poems and news reports. They have made clay tiles and created 'wanted' posters. In their ABL groups they have designed maps of Hamelin and filled rivers with rats. They learnt raps and songs, made hats and enjoyed a day of fun to finish the topic.

Acrostic Poems by P.3N/G

My Acrostic Poem

Rotten rats running through the town.

Awful rats.

Teeth as sharp blades

Stilly me I actually do love rats

My Acrostic Poem

Running rascals running down the road.

Annoying rats biting babies and killing cats.

Teeth as sharp and yellow teeth

Skinny tails and big fat tails

My Acrostic Poem

Rascals running through the town.

Awful, ugly, stinky creatures.

Thieving evil little monsters.

Stinky little evil things.
